Call to Worship (adapted from 1 Cor. 1:18-31, The MSG)

One: The Message that points to Christ on the Cross seems like sheer silliness to those hellbent on destruction.

All: Lord, you help us makes sense of it all.

One: Take a good look, friends, at who you were when you got called into this life. God doesn't just call "the brightest and the best" among you, not only influential, not only high-society families. God deliberately chose people that the culture overlooks and exploits and abuses, chose these "nobodies".

All: Lord, your message is inclusive. You help us see our worth and our potential.

One: Everything that we have—right thinking and right living, a clean slate and a fresh start—comes from God by way of Jesus Christ. Let us worship.

All: We boast today for our God is good all the time.

Opening Prayer (Inspired by Micah 6:8)

Today, we are inclined toward you, Great God. Remind us of what is good. Coax us toward your justice in spaces fueled by injustice. Nudge us to be kind and tender in places where hurting prevails. Prod us to be humble in our walk with you when our certainty clouds our vision. We pray for your wisdom to guide us as we celebrate your presence in all of our communities of faith. Amen.
