*Edited for 2020 Transitions Retreat (Greater Northwest Episcopal Area) by Rev. David Valera
The text of the Prayer of Great Thanksgiving began with a death. When a clergy person, Katherine Gara, died of brain cancer in 2001, several friends wrote a Communion Liturgy that included remembrances of her and her theology. The Great Thanksgiving at her funeral became the foundation for the Memorial and Communion Service of the California Pacific Annual Conference. The liturgy was revised in 2002 because of 9/11 and was focused upon Easter themes. The liturgy was written by the Rev. Mark Wiley, the Rev. Preston Price, the Rev. Jan Wiley, and Marian Gill.
